MOUNT SAINT JOSEPH ACADEMY

Volume 8

Editor-in-Chief
Business Managers

Foreword

Now it remains for us, the class of '47, to inscribe in the space reserved for us in the Mt. St. Joseph annals, a record of the joys and cares which have alternately blessed and beset us in our four unforgettable years as Acads.

Few, if any, of us will rise, in worldly eyes, to a pinnacle of fame and prosperity. However, in whatever walk of life we may trudge, the heaven-sent teachings of our devoted Priests and Sisters will glitter like an omnipotent beacon through the fog of modern heresy and growing lust for secular acclaim at the senseless exclusion of things spiritual.

We who have been taught God's laws of obedience, service to Him and to our fellow-men, and not to judge a man by the tint of his skin, but by his heart, leave this radiant heritage to those who follow us, even as we have benefited by that which was given us by those who preceded our class.

Dedication

With solemn forethought and sincere appreciation, these recollections of the Class of '47 are humbly dedicated to the "Silent Partners" in our search for true happiness—our Parents and our Faculty. Shunting themselves to the background, far removed from the fanfare of worldly recognition, they have worked ceaselessly to mold our characters in conformance with the will of God, which they understand so well.

How anyone could bear up under the trials and ingratitude which we have inadvertently showered upon them is, to us, another miracle attributable to the Divine Saviour. May the following pages emblazoned with our efforts reflect our eternal indebtedness to them.

Mount Editorial Board

Recipe for the editorial section of a yearbook: take five parts manuscripts dotted with ebony checks; add one part gleaming pile of snapshots; sort carefully collection of sports photos, school pictures and portraits of school notables; stir in briskly enthusiasm of harassed seniors at its zenith; sandwich completed product meticulously between hard-earned book covers; season with experienced advice of class advisers; sprinkle gently with the fragrance of still-fresh printer's ink, and serve hot off the press.

The members of the '47 Mount staff grasp this opportunity to present the eighth edition of the Academy Annual to their critics and well-wishers with the sincere hope that it may satisfy the literary palates of those who scan its pages.

RICHARD PERFETTI,
Editor-in-Chief.

Standing: John Miglis, Roy Rotella, John Roach, John Clifford, John Joyce, Bernard Reardon.
Seated: Anthony Garofano, John Adams, Robert Higgins, Francis Donovan, Angelo DiPalma.

Mount Business Board

The generosity of our advertisers has made it possible for the Class of 1947 to publish another Academy yearbook.

The faculty and senior class unite with the Mount Business Board in expressing their gratitude to these benefactors in Rutland and elsewhere.

REVEREND EDWARD FITZSIMONS, Principal

Yesterday, Seniors of the Academy—today, Graduates of Mt. St. Joseph—tomorrow, young adults, you step out into life in real earnest. There will be joyous days among those tomorrows, but there will also be monotonous days filled with the ordinary responsibilities of life.

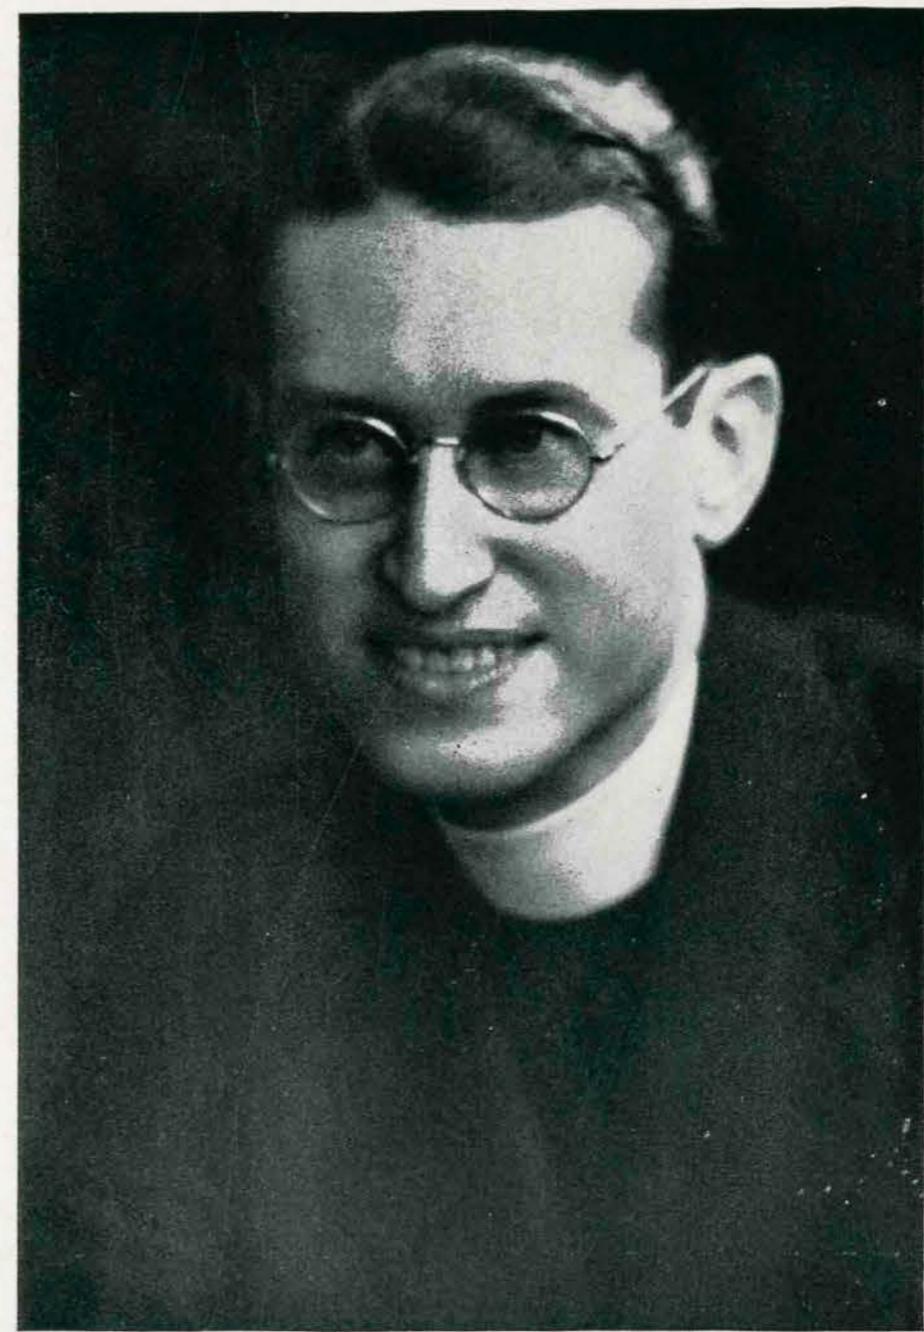

Fulfill these duties well, and in a manner befitting Christian young men and women, whose actions are inspired by a double love, which embraces the service of God and of neighbor. Thus, e'en though your lives be hidden, even obscure, you will have brought yourselves, and the world "closer to God," and have made the latter a better place in which to live.

May God bless you of '47!

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

As we are assembled here this evening to present our Class Night program we realize all too keenly that graduation, to which we have looked forward during four happy years is now about to become a reality. In the glow of excitement we find our anticipated joy more than slightly tinged with an unbidden mingling of the sadness which is ever present at commencement exercises.

Memories arise that will never be effaced, as we recall the anxieties and joys which have crowded every precious moment of our high school days at the Mount. We can not help but reflect, especially, upon the loving interest and encouragement shown to us by our Reverend Principal and our teachers in the daily problems of our school life, and the invaluable aid so generously afforded us by our parents and our priests. We are aware that the combination of these forces has ever tended toward our happiness, both temporal and eternal, beyond our fondest expectation.

It has been pleasant to be so closely associated in study and in recreation with classmates and teachers with whom we have formed a lasting friendship. This is without doubt one of the most cherished joys of our four, unforgettable years at Mt. St. Joseph Academy.

May our lives always reflect credit on the school we love so well, and on those who are so largely responsible for the many privileges that we enjoyed at the Mount.

Class Song

Words and Music by PATRICIA HURLEY

'Twas only four short years ago
That we first came the "Mount" to know,
And now the time is drawing nigh
For us to bid a fond goodbye.

We've worked and played, watched and planned,
Under your helpful, guiding hand;
To ever be faithful, M. S. J., to you,
Is our motto, sincere and true.

Chorus

We'll put our best foot forward as we go
Because, Mount St. Joseph, we want you to know
That through your teachings, old and new
We have always found what's good and true;
We will use this knowledge, M. S. J.,
And remember you with each passing day.

We Claim Them - - -

And who wouldn't? These courageous pupils, though long physically absent from our midst, have never left our memory . . . not for an instant. No, they're not world-beaters to be sure; but who can discount a pair of kids with broad, genial grins, and ever-ready helping hands from their share of happiness?

The bright lassie with the gleaming eyes goes by the name of Rose Mary Adams. Rose Mary, small of stature, packs more than her share of vitality into that slight frame, as any of her classmates will testify. Having departed from the Mount at the close of her junior year because of a spinal condition, Rose Mary entertains hopes of permanent recovery soon, and of returning to Academy life, to which we can only say "the sooner the better."

Blonde, azure-eyed Ray Hutchins now claims Massachusetts General Hospital as his temporary residence. During his all too brief sojourn at the Mount, likeable Ray endeared himself to all of us. Possessed with better than six feet of height, and a seldom-equalled sense of humor, Ray kept his classmates from the gloom which settles over the best of students at periodic intervals, with his laugh-provoking cracks. A typical Academy saying goes, "Oh what I'd give for a bull session with 'Hutch'."

Our "bestest" to Rose Mary and to Ray!

Our Senior Year

In keeping with Academy tradition we began our last year at the Mount by attending Holy Mass and dedicating ourselves and our work to Our Blessed Mother.

We then made our way to the Academy where we were greeted by Reverend Father Fitzsimons who had been appointed Principal of the Mount. The happy and friendly associations that we have had with Father will always be a cherished memory of our senior year.

Chosen to guide the destinies of the senior class were Bernard Gouchoe, President; Evelyn Costello, Vice President; Stella Cotrupi, Secretary; and Richard Perfetti, Treasurer. Our Student Council had among its number, Claire Kelly, Joan Daley, Mary Jane Duffy, Mary Salerni, Lorraine Stewart, Rita Ward, Arthur Courcelle, Howard Gilbert, Thomas Alberico, Thomas Dunn, John DiPalma and Roy Rotella.

We were happy to welcome again to our ranks Edward Carroll, Roy Rotella, John Adams, Eugene Roussil, David Lester, Thomas Dunn, Donald Mangan, Robert Anoe and George Bierwirth, who resumed their high school courses which were interrupted by the call to service of their country.

Work on the "Clarion," our school paper, began in October with Evelyn Costello, as Editor-in-Chief, and Charlotte Bresnehan and Arthur Courcelle, as Co-Business Managers.

On October 16 our annual retreat opened. Reverend Anthony McCue conducted the three day spiritual exercises.

In October also the freshmen were formally welcomed by the Academy upperclassmen. Due to the efficient efforts of the Student Council, assisted by the senior class officers, the initiation ceremony was a real success.

A long cherished hope of many Commercial students was realized in the organization of a Commerce Club. Stella Cotrupi was elected president; Lorraine Stewart, vice president; Rita Ward, secretary; and Patricia Creed, treasurer. The highlight of the club activities was the play "Gerry" which was presented for the student body and parents of the members of the cast.

Our annual minstrel show "Snap It Up" was presented November 26-28. Capacity audiences applauded the performances of End Men, Joseph Costello, Roy Rotella, Thomas Dunn, Eugene Roussil, Alphonse Cioffi, Anthony Miglorie; Interlocutor, Howard Gilbert; and a talented chorus.

The Academy gridsters won the city and state championship. Comprised of Co-captains Thomas Alberico and Frank Cioffi, Paul Mangan, Art Napolitano, Edward Sullivan, Ettore Valeroli, Roy Rotella, Henry DelBianco, Eugene Roussil, Anthony Miglorie and Alphonse Cioffi, the team ended the season with an unbeaten record.

In February we began work on our yearbook, "The Mount." Richard Perfetti was appointed Editor-in-Chief, with Francis Donovan and Robert Higgins as Co-Business Managers.

Our congratulations were extended to Bernard Gouchoe, named valedictorian, and Geraldine Lawrence, salutatorian of the class for their high scholastic standing for four years of high school.

On May 1 we took part in the annual procession in honor of Our Blessed Mother and on May 4 the Senior girls were guests of the Alumnae Association at the May Breakfast.

Seniors who took part in the All State Chorus held in Burlington May 8, 9 and 10 were Evelyn Costello, Barbara Duprey, Delores Ross; in the All State Band were Barbara Lipp, Edward St. Peter and Isabella Pandozzi. Other senior players were Rose Marie Rousseau, Grace Deletoso and Suzanne Gaucher.

Five members of the Senior Class were graduated from the Music Department: Lois Baker, Barbara Duprey, Patricia Hurley, Delores Ross and Joan Valente.

Our annual Senior Retreat was held May 27-29.

The first of June found us looking forward expectantly to our graduation. Senior Week activities included the Senior Ball, the class picnic at Lake St. Catherine. Graduation day opened with Mass in the school chapel followed by a class breakfast in the school dining hall. Commencement Exercises were held Friday, June 13, at Rutland Memorial Armory.

Thus ends the history of our four years at the Academy. We will be strengthened and encouraged through the years, as we recall the happiness and privileges that have been ours at the Mount.

We express our gratitude to Reverend Father Fitzsimons, to our Sister teachers, to Coach Branion and Coach Somma for all that they have done for us

RITA WARD,
Historian.

YES

I'VE HAD A HAPPY
YEAR, TOO!

Class Prophecy

Around and around it goes, and as the wheel of fortune spins and whirls about, we'll try to catch a thread and see what the future will weave for the Class of '47.

ANTHONY GAROFANO and ROBERT HIGGINS are proud owners of a "Now You Can Be Taller Than She Is" shoe factory.

GERALD LEFEVRE is found conducting a school for learning in ten easy lessons "How to Drive Safely."

DOREEN McDEVITT and BARBARA DUPREY are recording temperatures, rising and falling, in St. Vincent's Hospital, New York.

CORINNE FLYNN and LOUISE CIOFFI are writing gossip items for the Putney "Gazette."

EDWARD ST. PETER is the Charlie Spivak of the present bobby-sox generation.

BARBARA LIPP is conducting an all-girl orchestra in Philadelphia.

LEON ARCHAMBAULT is a Chemistry professor at the University of Vermont.

FRANK CIOFFI owns an ultra-modern fruit market, with his own special feature, the "you may look if you want to, but just try and squeeze those bananas" — a glass fruit case!

HENRY BATTLES and JOHN CLIFFORD have adjoining offices; Henry takes incoming patients and John cares for the outgoing.

MARJORIE ALLARD is a noted fashion designer in Hollywood.

ARTHUR COURCELLE is a renowned publicity agent.

HOWARD GILBERT and EDWARD SULLIVAN have a jointly owned "Gilbert and Sullivan" taxi agency.

JUSTINE HACKETT is a candy sampler at Fanny Farmer's.

ROSE MARIE ROUSSEAU has written a book highly praised in literary circles. The title is "Smiling Through."

FRANCIS DONOVAN is operating Donovan's Pharmacy in Fair Haven.

CAROLE ANN CORMIER runs the "Ye Try and Be Beautiful" Beauty Shoppe in Bennington.

PHOEBE LYNCH is frantically answering questions at the Information booth in Grand Central Station.

MARY GILMAN is hostess for Colonial Airlines.

IRENE DUNHAM, now happily married, is a real homemaker.

ROBERT WESTCOT is an instructor at Annapolis Academy.

CLAIRE KELLEY has just received a patent for her latest discovery of freckle remover.

RICHARD FLYNN has made a name for himself as star pitcher for the Hot Shot baseball team.

ANN AVERY is the country's champion bowler.

CATHERINE PARSONS is running an exclusive boarding school for girls.

GERALDINE LAWRENCE is trying to unravel the mysteries of psychology at Albany City Hospital.

JUNE HARRISON still hasn't grown that extra inch.

PATRICIA CARROLL and VIRGINIA NOTTE own a chic hat shop on Merchants Row.

GRACE DELETOSO has been voted "The Best-Dressed Woman in America."

DANIEL JENNINGS is a Senator in the Vermont Legislature.

PATRICIA HURLEY is employed in a Chinese Laundry named "Lee and Sons."

CLAYTON STEWART made headlines by becoming President of the Ford Motor Company.

HENRY DELBIANCO is building the "Road to Mandalay."

MARY JANE DUFFY is ski instructor at Pico.

EUGENE ROUSSIL is found reposing in sunny Honolulu.

WILLIAM MIGLIS has a repair shop and mends everything that has been broken, smashed, or otherwise treated roughly.

JOHN ROACH is a roving photographer for "Look" magazine.

DOMINIC CALIGUIRE operates a dude ranch in Bottleneck, Arizona.

MARY THERESE RYAN and GLADYS PERYER are opening a kindergarten in Chicago.

ROY ROTELLA is the Dance Director of the Rockettes at Radio City Music Hall.

MARY LOSEBY has a day nursery to relieve harassed mothers.

EDWARD CARROLL and MARY CROWLEY maintain a summer resort for all who suffer from "school fatigue."

RITA RATTI and NORMA BUGGIANI have written a revised edition of the French II textbook.

LOIS BAKER and EVELYN BUTLER have a combination knick-knack shop and bakery in Danby.

DAVID LESTER is an efficient officer at the Marine Recruiting Office.

PHYLLIS CARR is a magician's assistant.

MARY HURLEY supervises two "Why Be Lonely?" agencies.

MARILYN LAFRANCE has a fashionable dancing school.

LESLIE BEARSS is foreman of a northern Maine lumber camp.

ALICE McCARTHY is an English teacher at Middlebury College.

ELLEN STANZIONE owns an immense munitions factory.

THOMAS DUNN still hasn't reached Tennessee. Keep trying, Tommy!

PAUL MANGAN holds the enviable title of Poet Laureate of Vermont.

DELORES ROSS is giving piano concerts to packed audiences in Carnegie Hall.

JOHN ADAMS is lost in the adding and subtracting he does for a large business concern on Wall Street.

RICHARD PERFETTI is now Editor-in-Chief of the Rutland Herald.

CLAIRE McLAUGHLIN is still longing to be back with her "Alma Mater."

MARY CIEMIEGA is teaching Polish in West Rutland.

ISABELLA PANDOZZI is proving to be the most efficient mayor New York City has ever had.

FRANCES CIOFFI is as happy-go-lucky as ever.

THERESA FREDETTE works as a demonstrator for the Remington Typewriter Company.

MARION GALLAGHER is making banana splits at a soda fountain in the Statler Hotel in Boston.

DONALD MANGAN is a traveling salesman for the Fuller Brush Company.

PATRICIA HAMILTON works for the Treasury Department in Washington.

BERNARD GOUCHOE is rushing in answer to surgery calls.

JAMES McLELLAN regulates the bus routes between Danby and Rutland. Our quiet little THERESA PRZYBYTO—lo and behold! Won first prize in a contest for the "Girl Who Can Talk the Most in the Least Time." GEORGE BIERWIRTH—to prove he still prefers New York to Vermont—resides in Frankfurt, New York. MARILYN GAIOTTI is a perfume specialist with the Elizabeth Arden Company. MARY SALERNI is the star of the latest Broadway hit musical. Critics praise her dancing ability as "supercolossal." JOSEPH COSTELLO is a comedian on "Can You Top This?" CONCHITA MANGLANO is a member of the Colombian Embassy in Washington. ARTHUR HORVATH is America's Einstein. LENORE DeLORIA has just published her collected poems in ten volumes. MARY ABATIELL has her own comedy show on Tuesday nights. She has Bob Hope worried! WILLIAM KRAMARZ is manager of the Furniture Department at the Economy. ROBERT ANOE is the drillmaster for the City Band. STELLA COTRUPI is working in the London office of "Life" magazine. JOHN MIGLIS is a radio announcer for WSYB. ALICE MEEHAN recently opened an Oriental tearoom. GLORIA PARKER owns a pet shop and specializes in canaries. THOMAS ALBERICO is the present athletic coach at M. S. J. and even teaches history on the side. CHARMAINE FALZO is a long distance operator in the telephone office. PATRICIA DeLANCE is a Powers model. BERNARD REARDON is working in the ticket office at the Rutland Railroad station. JAMES MAGNER was received into partnership at Shangraw's. BARBARA McNEIL continues the road from Rutland to Proctor. HELEN ENFIELD is still struggling with American History. Those Indians certainly are confusing, aren't they, Helen? JOHN JOYCE is in Florida resting from his four years of hard labor at M. S. J. JOAN DALEY is a rhumba instructor for Arthur Murray. GERALDINE GRADY is head nurse at Grady Institute. GUIDO FORTE has a large shipyard at New London, Connecticut. BERNA BURKE can be seen typing away at the Kaiser-Frazer Company. SUZANNE GAUCHER is a French professor in Paris. CLEMENTINE PARKER has invented a special kind of roller skates with built-in motors for tardy students. RITA WARD is the dean of Campbell's Secretarial School. EVELYN COSTELLO is now in Hollywood starring in "Always Ember." PATRICIA CREED is busy with a long program of receptions and parties. LORRAINE STEWART finally received an airplane ticket to Florida.

Our story has been told, so we put away the wheel of fortune until next year when the Class of '48 will perhaps put it to use in making their predictions.

Class Will

The reign of our very remarkable class having drawn to an all too sudden conclusion, it is only fitting that we should entrust to our worthy successors our worldly possessions or particular talents. Accordingly we present this document as the final will and testament of the Class of 1947.

QUIDO FORTE leaves his report card as a means of consolation to discouraged Juniors.

JOHN MIGLIS wills his educated thumb to any out-of-town Junior.

EDDIE ST. PETER donates his trumpet-playing technique to Harry James.

PAT DELANCE leaves her pictures to be used in the "After Ad" of the "Dubarry Success Course."

CLAIRE KELLEY wills her "girls' room chatter" to Theresa West.

MARY JANE DUFFY, singing "Anchors Aweigh," leaves for Athens to participate in the Greek Olympics.

MARJORIE ALLARD gives her artistic ability to Ann Fagan.

LORRAINE STEWART leaves her collection of "Letters to a Sailor" to the M. S. J. library.

JIMMIE MAGNER wills his wit to Bob Hope.

HELEN ENFIELD and ELLEN STANZIONE leave—for prosperous futures in the business world.

DOREEN McDEVITT bequeaths a package of Kellogg's "Pep" to Angie Marotti to be used before every band practice.

MARY CROWLEY passes on her cheerleader duties to Bella Mecier.

"ARCHIE" ARCHAMBAULT wills his "little black book" to any lonely Junior.

TERESA PRZYBYTO and MARY CIEMIEGA leave their names to be used in spelling bees.

JOHN JOYCE wills his cheerful disposition to Francis Nugent.

DICK PERFETTI bequeaths his journalistic ability to the editor of the '48 Mount.

ED CARROLL leaves for Granville, N. Y.

JUNE HARRISON wills her typing speed to Janice Murphy.

ARTHUR HORVATH gives about three feet of altitude to "Peanut" Ward.

LESLIE BEARSS and "Ezzy" COURCELLE donate their books to the city incinerator.

ISABEL PANDOZZI and BARBARA LIPP leave a large gap (not literally) in the M. S. J. orchestra.

GLADYS PERYER departs from the Chemistry lab with a sigh of relief.

BUD GILBERT leaves in Blondy's Taxi.

TERESA FREDETTE, PAT CARROLL and GRACE DELETOSO bequeath their three-way friendship to Joan Brunell, Dee LeFrancois and Martha Creed.

MARY SALERNI and MARILYN LAFRANCE leave their tap shoes to Martha Mooney and Catherine Sullivan.

BOB WESTCOT wills his "come-what-may" attitude to any seriously-inclined Junior.

PAT CREED leaves with her lovable nickname "Boogy," while the underclassmen ponder over its source.

EVELYN COSTELLO leaves her editorship of the Clarion to some lucky junior.

"OLIE" REARDON gives his belligerent attitude to Henry Wallace. PAT HAMILTON, MARY THERESE RYAN, CLAIRE McLAUGHLIN and PHYLLIS CARR leave together.

FRANCIS DONOVAN donates his knowledge of Chemistry and Physics to Atomic Research.

GLORIA and CLEMENTINE PARKER will their ten best excuses for being late to Marianne and Joe Rice.

FRANCES CIOFFI leaves her best wishes to next year's seniors.

DICK FLYNN bequeaths his pitching powers to "Funzie" Cioffi.

TOM ALBERICO, FRANK CIOFFI, PAUL MANGAN, GENE ROUSSIL, ED SULLIVAN and ROY ROTELLA leave the State Championship to next year's gridiron eleven.

PHOEBE LYNCH gives her acting ability to the Actor's Guild of M. S. J.

STELLA COTRUPI donates her all around ability to Mary Lou Norton.

JOE COSTELLO wills his "Reader's Digest" to Barrie Byrne.

CLAYTON STEWART, HANK BATTLES, BUD GOUCHOE and JOHN ROACH leave for U. V. M.

JOAN DALEY and "TEENY" HACKETT give their "little red book" to Pat O'Shea.

ANN AVERY imparts instructions to Jane Mangan to carry on in the true Avery tradition.

CATHERINE PARSONS bequeaths her persuasive powers to Doris Fitzgerald.

TOM DUNN leaves for "Sunny Tennessee."

GERALDINE GRADY donates her "Minnie Mouse" voice to the newest Walt Disney production.

BOB HIGGINS gives his heart to "Putt."

WILLIAM KRAMARZ leaves the "65 Club" envious of his spontaneous History replies.

DON MANGAN wills his car (or what's left of it) to his sister Mary.

JOHN DiPALMA leaves to become coach of the Brooklyn Dodgers until Leo Durocher returns.

DOREEN CHASE, LOUISE CIOFFI and CORINNE FLYNN will their positions on the Clarion staff to any girls willing to assume responsibility.

JOAN VALENTE gives her many dates to the eager-beaver underclassmen.

MARY HURLEY and MARY LOSEBY leave in Hurley's "pick-up" for parts unknown.

IRENE DUNHAM leaves her English notes to Eunice Pellestri.

LENORE DELORIA gives her poetic ability to Eileen Abbott.

GERALD LEFEVRE leaves his Ford at Rosen and Berger's junk yard.

GERALDINE LAWRENCE and RITA WARD bequeath their places on the honor roll to Kathleen Leary and Carolyn Burke.

VIRGINIA NOTTE and MARY GILMAN donate their quiet ways to Betty Mullin.

GEORGE BIERWIRTH, DAN JENNINGS and ANTHONY GARAFANO leave for St. Michael's.

NORMA BUGGIANI and RITA RATTI will their places on the 4:30 Proctor bus to any two Marble-town commuters.

BARBARA McNEIL and BERNA BURKE give their lunch-time places (along with their noon-hour chatter) to Jean Solari and Anita Leluikas.

BILL MIGLIS leaves his reputation as a big game hunter to any gullible Junior.

BARBARA DUPREY and DELORES ROSS leave their music duties in favor of nurse's training.

PAT HURLEY donates her vim, vigor and vitality to Pat Burke.

LOIS BAKER and CHARMAINE FALZO will their bashful ways to Jeanette Lanoue.

"MIMI" CALIGUIRE leaves to reorganize MacNamara's band.

ALICE MEEHAN leaves her punctuality to Monica Foster.

ROBERT ANOE gives his mathematical ability to Einstein.

MARY ABATIELL leaves her movie magazines in her desk, where they've been all year.

JOHN CLIFFORD bequeaths a Boy Scout's hiking pack to any underclassman who has an interest beyond the Fair Grounds.

ANN CORMIER gives her curly hair to Helen Kelley.

EVELYN BUTLER and MARILYN GAIOTTI leave for Danby.

JAMES McLELLAN leaves his quiet, gentlemanly ways for the benefit of all M. S. J. boys.

SUZANNE GAUCHER leaves with happy memories of the Mount.

ROSE MARIE ROUSSEAU wills her motto "smile ever—frown never" to all downcast Juniors.

BUD LESTER and JOHN ADAMS leave to publish a best-seller based on their experiences while in service.

ALICE McCARTHY and MARION GALLAGHER reveal their secret of getting to school on time every day to Bill Hamilton and Tom Ryan.

CONCHITA MANGLANO leaves to teach the English language in South America.

Signed this 10th day of June in the year one thousand nine hundred and forty-seven.

Happy Memories

We shall never forget the joyous days we spent at Mt. St. Joseph. Each of the four years of high school was filled with happy associations, but our senior year was the best of all. Among the highlights were:

Our "chats" at the noon gatherings near the corner-store.
The shivering and shaking, as we received our report cards!
Our delight when Buddy Gouchoe was chosen president of our class.
The long "trail" to the wastebasket to deposit "forbidden" gum.
The terror of the Freshmen, as we put them through their "stunts."
Snowballing "penalties" courageously but "impatiently" endured.
The Gilbert and Sullivan "line" of excuses to avoid detention.
Gene Roussil's whistle or song through the corridors.
Tommy Alberico's vain attempt to get a "hearing" in English class.
The study hall "torture-chamber" on examination day.
Chemistry lab surprises, odors, and explosions.
"Singing in the Rain" during the May Procession.
Dick Perfetti's "scouting" for money for yearbook covers.
The good times we had at the C. Y. O.
The splendid work done by our classy majorettes and cheerleaders.
Claire Kelley's surprise when Roy Rotella announced that he was going to the seminary.
Our flashy, top-notch M. S. J. Band.
M. S. J.'s winning the city and state football championship.
Dominic Caliguire directing McNamara's band.
Lorraine Stewart's pepsodent smile.
The merry chatter of our Spanish girls from South America.
Jimmy Magner's difficulty in keeping his wit under control.
Hank Battles' last unfortunate snowball!
Our bus ride to the Springfield game at Windsor to help M. S. J. gain a berth in the tourney.
Trips to the office for one of those "rainbow colored" ties, when we failed to wear one of our own.
The rush for the "Hurley and LeFevre" taxis at dismissal.
All the activities of senior week.
Best of all—our happy relations with Father Fitzsimons, with our Sisters, with Coach Branen and Coach Somma.

Under the capable supervision of Sister Mary Evangelist, Mt. St. Joseph's soul-stirring musicians once more demonstrated their musical prowess before appreciative audiences throughout the '46-'47 school year. Besides performing at the annual school functions, at gridiron and hoop contests, and the May Procession, this musically minded group of Academy instrumentalists manifested their ability before crowds at Port Henry, N. Y., the Army Week Exercises, Patrol Boys' Convention, May Festival, Assumption Day Program, and Governor's Day, an annual fixture at the Rutland State Fair. In addition, the note playing assemblage, aided and abetted by a sparkling array of majorettes, headlined by Doreen McDevitt, paraded their skill at the official opening of Rutland's new Armory, and at the third degree festivities sponsored by the Knights of Columbus. Again they tooted their melodies in participating in the roof-raising send-off accorded the R. H. S. basketball champions.

Orchestra

Performing in their usual creditable style, the orchestra furnished music for Class Night, Graduation Exercises, the Minstrel Show, Concert, March 9, and Music Graduation Concert.

Glee Club

Membership in the Glee Club, supervised by Sister Mary St. Catherine, is entirely voluntary. From the group, the All-State Chorus members were chosen on the basis of perfect attendance at rehearsals, ability to read music, and a desire for keener appreciation of the vocal field.

Boys' Choir

Much credit is due to the choir members and their director Mr. George Tousignant for their part in stimulating good church music. Their rendition of Gregorian Chant and polyphonic works are in keeping with the desires of Pope Pius X.

State

Sponsored by the American Legion and city societies, these representative students inscribed their names on Vermont's Roll of Honor by establishing themselves as integral parts of the 1946 Girls' State held at Montpelier and Boys' State at Norwich. Digging deeper notches in the "State" tree were Bernard Gouchoe, winner of a scholarship to U. V. M., Evelyn Costello and Daniel Jennings, both of whom served as important cogs on the "State" newspapers, and Edward St. Peter, who was a trumpeter in the Boys' State Orchestra.

Containing in its pages a wide range of editorials, features, and news events, the Academy's mouthpiece effectively embodied the major qualifications that characterize a "good" newspaper. Undoubtedly, the highlight of the "Clarion's" year was the "Extra" rolled off the press, heralding the Academy's state championship football eleven. Sister Mary Barbara and Sister Mary Concepta were Faculty Advisers to the staff.

Sodality

Inspired with devotion to Mary, Queen of the World, the Sodalists of '47 have paid tribute to her on many occasions. Under the supervision of Sister Mary Francis, they have conducted meetings, socials, and programs to promote the honor and glory of the Mother of God.

C. Y. O. Committee

Boasting a membership that bristled with active minds and willing hearts, the '46-'47 C. Y. O. committee once more projected Catholic ideals into recreation in sponsoring weekly dances and praiseworthy programs at the Knights of Columbus Hall. Under the guidance of Fathers Demasi and Carrigan, the "younger set" kept things humming at their various functions, much to the pleasure of the music loving 'teen-agers.

1946 was a banner year for the gridsters of Mt. St. Joseph Academy as they emerged from a difficult seven-game schedule with an undefeated, untied record. The mythical state championship and city title laurels were awarded the Parochial eleven in recognition of their achievements.

Seniors, Tommy Alberico and Frank Cioffi, co-captained the Mounties through the most successful campaign in the Academy's grid history. The larger part of that success was due to the untiring efforts of "Coach of the Year," Barry Branion, and his capable assistant, Sal Somma.

The Big Green Wave gained state-wide recognition in their initial gridiron battle as they turned back a scrappy Montpelier combine to the tune of 33 to 0. It was the Mountie line which was outstanding throughout the contest—continuously tearing yawning gaps in the Solon forward wall and breaking through to stop plays before they could get started, with the result that the men from the Capitol City were able to gain but 15 yards rushing.

Something of an oddity occurred the following week, as the Big Green Wave bowled over a West Rutland-Fair Haven combination, playing alternate quarters, by a 27 to 0 verdict. That the Mountie attack was equally effective against both teams is shown in the division of the scoring—14 points against West Rutland and 13 against Fair Haven.

In the next contest the Acads played host to a reputedly strong Bellows Falls squad. The Purple and White battled the Wave on almost even terms during the first half, but in the next session the paper city force fell victim to a Cioffi-Alberico attack, which netted the Acads 20 points and a 26 to 7 victory.

The Mounties next traveled to Barre to take on a high-flying Spaulding eleven. For three periods the Acads battled the all-out-defense of the Crimson Tide without scoring. Finally, with three minutes remaining the granite-like Barre forward wall crumpled under a terrific onslaught, and Miglorie poured through for the only touchdown of the afternoon. Miglorie hit center again for the extra point and the Wave sailed on to another victory. 7 to 0. In the first quarter of this contest Hank Battles, the Acad's stellar guard suffered a broken ankle, and was forced to the sidelines for the remainder of the season.

On the following Saturday the Branonmen played host to a powerful Springfield team. After being completely out-played throughout the first half, the Acads came back with a never-say-die attitude and succeeded in routing the Machine-towners by a 20 to 2 decision.

After a two weeks' rest, the Wave journeyed to St. Albans to battle the Marymen on a cold, wet Saturday. Because of weather conditions, the Mounties' ground and aerial attacks bogged down continuously, but flashing championship form in a well-balanced attack, they won easily, 16-6.

It was a confident well-drilled Academy machine that invaded Rutland High School's rain-drenched gridiron on November 11 for the traditional Armistice Day classic. Twelve previous years Academy teams had attempted to gain a decision from their city rivals, and twelve years they had failed! But, this year was different, the Acads were undefeated—they were superior and now they were going to prove it.

The whistle blew, getting underway the all-important event. The Red-men received and after a series of plays were forced to punt. The muddy pigskin carried to the Green Wave five, where it proceeded to slither through the out-stretched arms of "Fundsie" Cioffi, and was quickly pounced upon by a Rutland warrior. Three plays later the Raiders hit pay-dirt, but were stopped cold on their conversion try. But their good fortune was short-lived, for soon after the commencement of the second quarter signal-caller Cioffi caught a punt on the Wave 45 and behind superb blocking sped 55 yards across the Flaitzmen's goal line. The conversion try was missed, knotting the count at 6 all. Sparse moments later this same Cioffi fully atoned for his earlier misdemeanor, as he again crossed the coveted Raider goal line on an end sweep from the enemy's 10, where Tony Miglorie had shortly before deposited the pigskin on a series of line plunges. The touchdown terminated the scoring for the afternoon, and the Mounties had gained their first decision over a Rutland aggregation by a verdict of 12 to 6.

Not even the elements could dampen the spirits of the Academy's rain-riddled rooters as they trekked homeward to the tune of the Victory March with the city and state championships safely tucked away.

Highlights of the '46 Football Season:

1. Fundsie Cioffi, Tony Miglorie, Tom Alberico, Ettore Valleroli and Frank Cioffi, were picked for the All-State Team.
2. M. S. J. broke Rutland High School's 13 year old "psychological jinx."
3. M. S. J. won its first city and state football championships.

Getting off to a slow start, the Acads lost to Randolph, 36-32, only to rebound in contests in the north, in which they won over St. Mary's and Bellows Free Academy of St. Albans by 49-36 and 45-18 tallies. A week later, Burlington's Memorial Auditorium became the site of Mt. St. Joseph's second defeat; a 40-25 pasting meted out by Cathedral. Returning home, the Branommen were drowned in the offensive deluge powerhoused by Curtis High, of Staten Island, as the New Yorkers buried the Parochials, 63-26.

Taking to the slats against a star-studded Alumni squad which numbered Lou Pokwryka, Bill and Joe Lovett, Raymond 'Babe' Spoon, Johnny Hackett, and Jack Daley among its starters, the Big Green pegged its way to an early lead, and staving off a last minute surge by the collegians, racked up a 30-27 decision.

The ancient rivalry between R. H. S. and the Green Wave provided the lid-opener for the Southern Vermont league campaign. "Bundsie" Keefe's veteran array smashed an ineffectual, fighting quintet of Mounties, 38-18.

Springfield's Cosmopolitans presented themselves at the high school gymnasium for the second league tilt, and bowed to an improved Green and White contingent, 30-22.

Encouraged by their "upset" victory over the Birskymen, the Acads punched out successive wins over Hartford, Brattleboro and Bellows Falls. Besting the Midgets from White River Junction at Hartford, 35-24, the Green Hurricane snatched a thriller from Brattleboro's "never-say-die" Organgrinders, 38-37 on the home boards. Bellows Falls' Purple Five braved the raging elements to provide M. S. J. with its largest score of the year as the high-riding Branommen swamped the Schneidermen, 55-31.

It remained for Frank Hinckey's Golden clan from West Rutland to halt the new second-place Green Tornado. The Marble-towners spilled the Parochials in as thrilling a contest as could be conjured up, 27-26. The prolonged win-streak of the Academy stalwarts seemed to be in the process of rapid degeneration, when Andy Natowick's Blue and White Bratts spanked the Mount, by coming from behind to take a 33-29 victory. Hartford's gallant Midgets were definitely out to make life miserable for Mt. St. Joseph followers, as Lou Sacco and ex-service man Connolly took advantage of the Big Green's multiple miscues to squeeze out an 11-9 halftime vantage. Shaking them loose from their basket shyness, the tirading Saints, with "Quisty" Acquistapace and "Mickey" Kelly bellowing the Mounties inferno, swept the Sacco-gang off their feet with a stunning 44-24 win.

Springfield's Cosmopolitans tasted the fruits of vengeance, the following Friday as they built up a tremendous first half lead and coasted in to a 35-22 decision over the Saints.

Assistant Coach Sal Somma took over the reins for Mr. Branom, who was ill at the time that the Green and White staked a daring claim to a victory over the undefeated Red Raiders in the second meeting of the two clubs. Trailing 18-10 at the 16 minute mark, the "Somma-men" opened the scoring throttle and whittled the Crimson vantage to 27-25 at the official time out in the final canto. Setting up a "freeze" situation, the Red and White stalled the Green Wave for the remainder of the evening and trounced off the boards as victors by 32-28.

Frank Hinckey's "Giant-killing" quintet became the second team in a row to stop the ailing Acads as "Johnny Bloomer and Co." stepped out of their Mountie-dug grave and rushed the Acads fiercely in grabbing a 36-33 decision from the Parochials.

Captain "Tink Tinker" brought his Windsor cohorts to Rutland and proceeded to dish out a third successive beating to the Saints, 51-41. Mickey Kelly played a fast-stepping tune on the snowy strings by dunking 20 counters for the Parochial cause.

Mount St. Joseph made Bellows Falls the scene of a gallant comeback, as they downed the pride of the Paper City, 35-26, and in an exhibition which many considered the finest brand of basketball demonstrated by the Big Green, Barry Branon's cinderella crew startled Leonard Pierce's Windsor gang, and notched a 51-39 victory in the process.

Don Maley's Northern Kings then met their Waterloo as M. S. J.'s vengeance-seeking crew, paced by Mickey Kelly's 23 markers, trampled the Cathedral five, 46-37.

Vermont's Headmaster's Committee decreed a play-off for the "Nebraska boys" with Boleslof "Bobo" Birskey's Machinetowners as opponents, and Windsor's gleaming surface as the site. The eager Cosmos ambled off to an early lead, which grew to immense proportions as the game progressed. Entering the deciding period under a 7-point handicap the vengeful Green Tornado stirred up a raging, swirling offense into a point getting hoop machine and succeeded in deadlocking the debacle at 34-34, as Father Time ticked off the closing seconds of the last session. Sparked by diminutive Barrie Byrne, the Green Wavers retained their blistering pace and brought home an oversize slab of the proverbial "bacon" in the form of a 39-36 decision.

Brattleboro provided the opposition for the Acads in the quarter-final round of "A" tournament warfare. Barry Branon dug deep into his "bag of tournament tricks" and produced a sizzling dead-shooting aggregation that shellacked a surprisingly ineffective Azure and White clan 48-28.

Rutland High's championship-bound Keefemen applied the skids under a 5 game Big Green victory streak in Friday night's semi-final tilt as the Ferraro-sparked quintet toppled the Green and White Saints, 48-31.

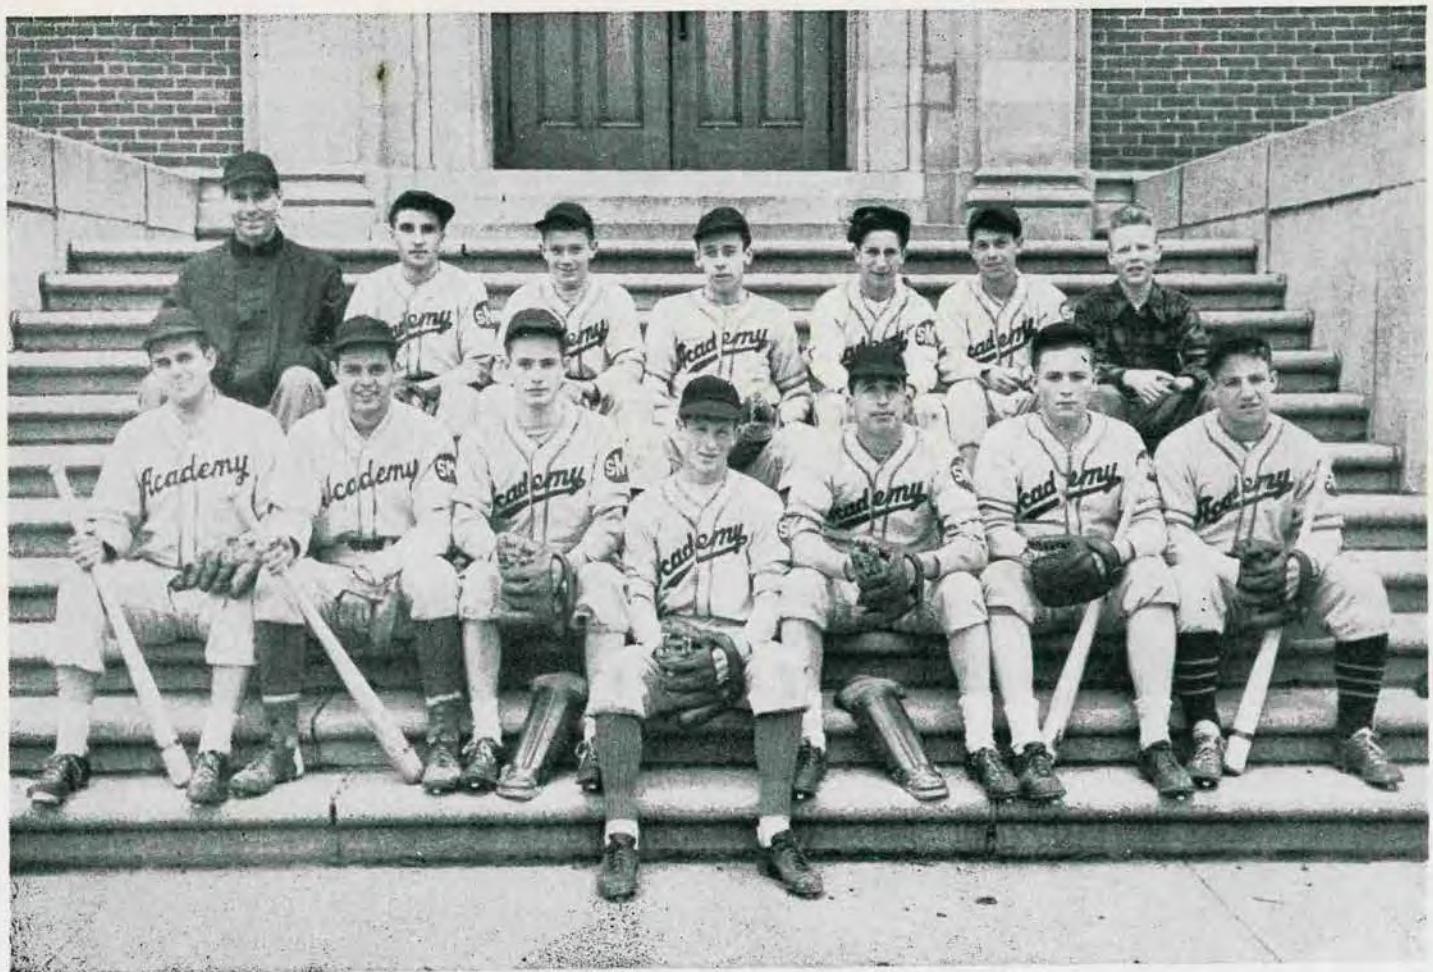

While the Mounties can not boast of a brilliant hoop season, they can take pride in the fact that they were always considered a dangerous ball club, and with reason. Rutland's Red Raiders can testify to this statement as they were undoubtedly more wary of the Big Green than of any other team. The most encouraging fact concerning the '46-'47 hoopsters of the Academy is the fact that 10 varsity members will present themselves for action in the '47-'48 campaign.

Mickey Kelly, "Funzie" Cioffi and Barrie Byrne reaped the scoring laurels for the 13-11 season.

Credit is due to Coach Barry Branon for his skillful tutoring of a slow-starting crew, which he molded into a unit capable of a tournament berth.

Baseball

First row: Dick Flynn, Alphonse Cioffi, Henry DelBianco, Mickey Kelly, Captain, Angelo DiPalma, Henry Battles, Tom Alberico.
 Second row: Coach Sal Somma, Steve Falco, Andrew Orzel, Stan Kantorski, Angelo Maniery, Leon Bernardo, Manager Ronald Abbott.

Eager to impress their newly-appointed tutor, Coach Sal Somma, seventy hustling Green Wave youngsters braved the chilling pre-spring snap to present themselves before their popular mentor in the dawn of the 1947 baseball campaign. Using a series of gruelling practice sessions as a criterion for his final decision, Coach Somma entered heartily into his tedious task.

Capable veterans such as Stan Kantorski, dependable backstop, Dick Flynn, star hurler, Mickey Kelly, crisp-batting shortstop, Tommy Alberico, hot-corner defender "Hank" Battles, converted catcher, now holding down the initial sack, and Angelo DiPalma, "Red" DelBianco and "Funzie" Cioffi, who also does an occasional turn on the twirling slab, as garden guardians form a smooth-working nucleus, into which Mr. Somma injected freshman "Red" Orzel in the keystone position, to complete his diamond picture.

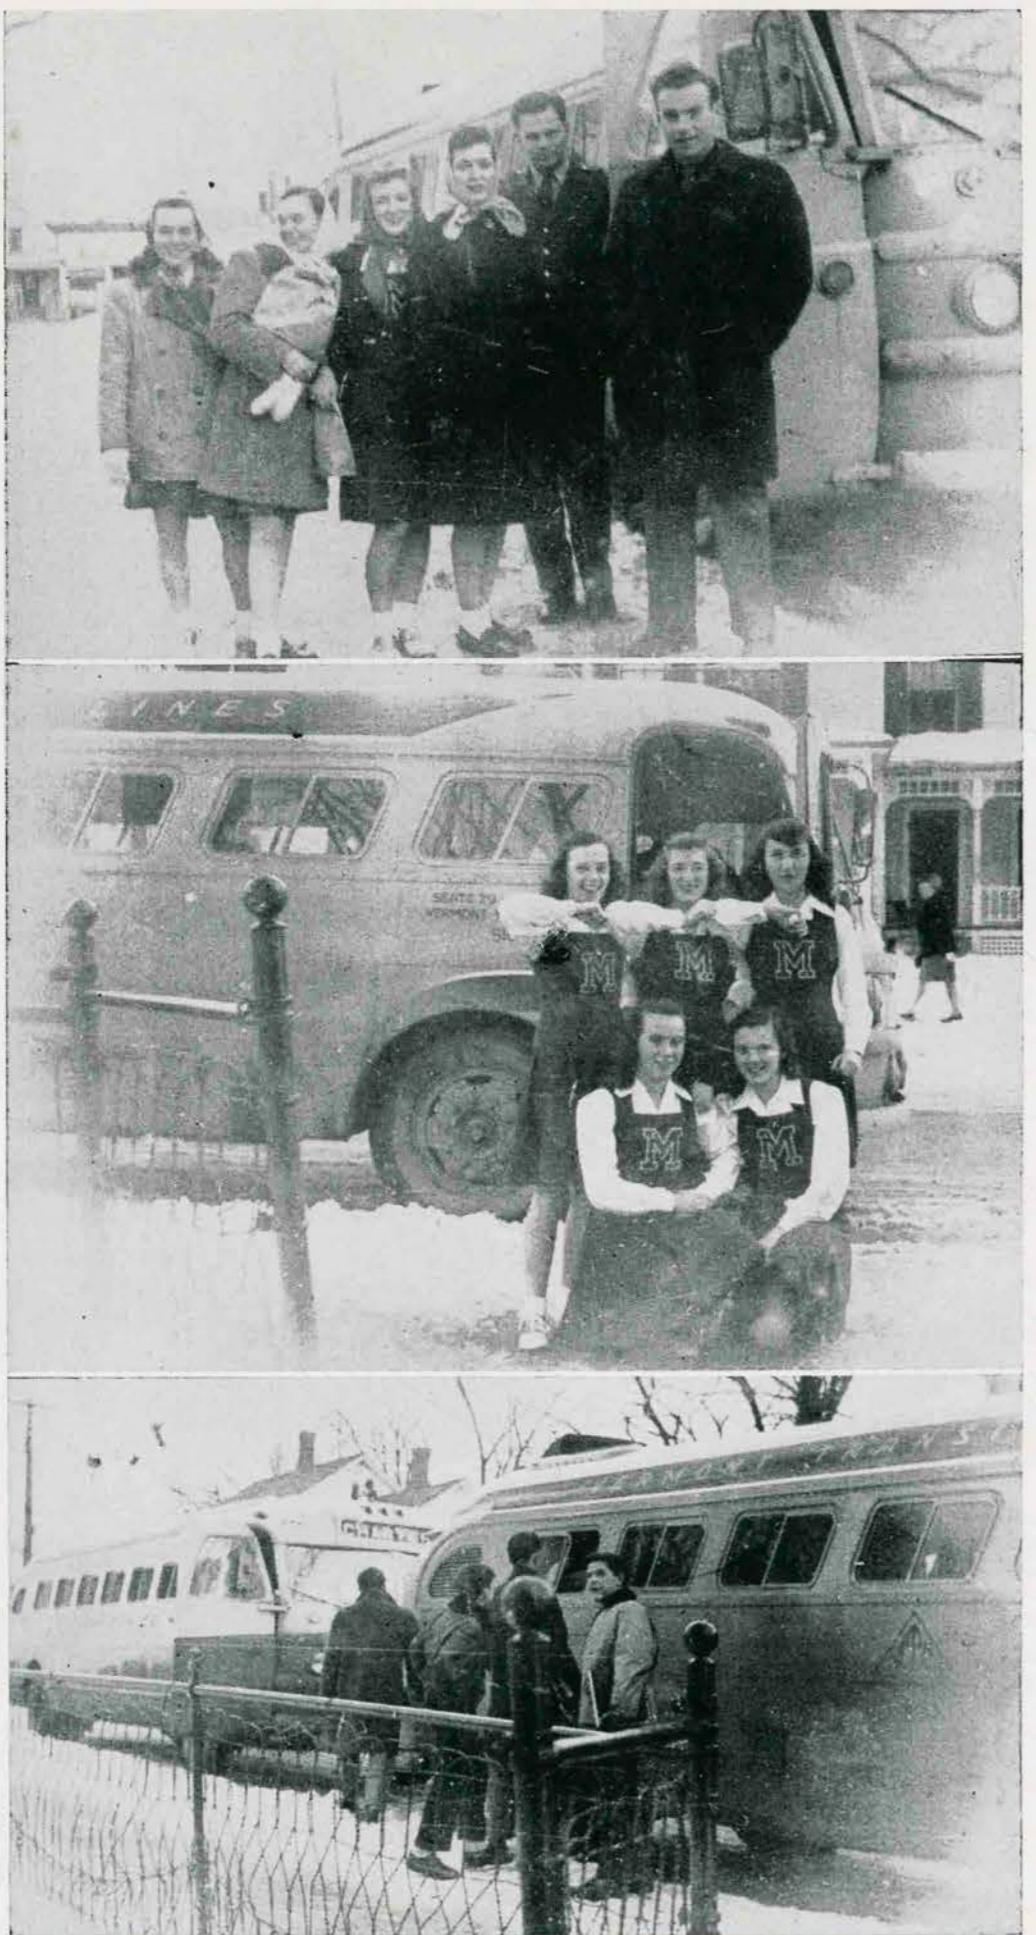

With "Funzie" Cioffi twirling victories in both debacles, the Acads annexed the highly-coveted City Crown by wresting 5-1 and 8-0 decisions from the Lloyd Flaitz Red Raiders.

Looking ahead with eyes that see "victory" tacked after each diamond battle, Sal Somma smiles optimistically and says, "We have a good club. Need I say more?"

It's a hummer... Have a Coke

...rug-cutting at the high school gym

Kids sure do know how to get together and get things going. Young folks long ago found that the pause that refreshes with ice-cold Coca-Cola is a swell ice-breaker. Have a Coke gets over quickly with everybody. All America knows it as an invite to get together and give with the good news.
